

Table of Contents

Acknowledgements	3
Foreword	5
Program.....	7
Role of community groups.....	11
Conservation through Collaboration The steps that the WA Malleefowl Network is taking to achieve increased malleefowl conservation.....	13
Community and Conservation: Malleefowl Conservation in SA.....	23
NSW Malleefowl	32
The Role of Community Groups: Victoria	34
Threats & Community Action.....	42
Community involvement and the National Recovery Plan for Malleefowl.....	44
Conservation of the Malleefowl: are there lessons from the successful conservation of native mammals by intensive fox control?	54
Fire in Mallee Communities.....	70
Mallee fires and malleefowl – seeking a balance.....	84
Ecological consequences of clearing and fragmentation of native vegetation	96
Chicks, Food and Fragmentation	100
Bureaucratic and funding impediments to threatened species recovery	104
“Gnowing is Believing”.....	110
Monitoring methods & protocol.....	120
Why monitor? The role of monitoring in environmental management	122
Monitoring Malleefowl: Options, problems and solutions.....	128
Malleefowl (Leipoa ocellata) Conservation on Eyre Peninsula, South Australia	136
‘ Ordinary People Doing Extraordinary Things ’ An outline of the processes used by volunteers to collect malleefowl data in northwest Victoria	146
Poster papers	156
Conservation through community passion: Observations of Malleefowl Leipoa ocellata in the Mallee Region	158
Survival on the land – the mallee, the malleefowl, the community	159
Aboriginal Legacies-Contributions Toward Community Awareness	160
“Kitless Kat Klinicks” A Community Response to Cat Predation.....	161
The Mulga to Mallee Link – a corridor vision.....	162
How fox scat collection can provide information on fox diet.	163
Community searches for Malleefowl at Yeelirrie (WMC), central WA.....	164

The Mapping of road verges in the Shire of Gnowangerup	165
Using Database and Mobile Computing Technologies for Recording Malleefowl Activities.	166
Trust for Nature (Victoria).....	167
“Malleefowl Magic” An Education Program for Primary Schools	168
Landholder and community efforts to protect malleefowl populations in the northern wheatbelt of WA	169
Workshops & Recommendations.....	170
Monitoring.....	171
Coordination	171
Communication	172
Resourcing	172
Key resolutions of the National Forum	174
List of Participants.....	176

Papers and abstracts

The papers and abstracts compiled in this document were developed for presentation at the National Malleefowl Forum, February 2004. They have not been refereed or edited for inclusion in the Proceedings.